Dear Colleagues,

I completely agree with the suggestion to separate Greek spoken during the Middle Ages from Ancient and Modern Greek and assign it a special code GKM. But I would like to note that the more common term used in Greek linguistics to refer to this stage of Greek is "Medieval Greek" rather than "Middle Greek", so may be it would be better to use the term "Medieval Greek" in ISO too.

Best wishes,

Anastassia

------

Anastassia Loukina
DPhil candidate in linguistics
St Cross College
University of Oxford