jay_soper@sil.org

Associated Change request number : 2008-024 (completed by Registration Authority)
Tentative assignment of new identifier : lsp (completed by Registration Authority)

PLEASE NOTE: This completed form will become part of the public record of this change request and the history of the ISO 639-3 code set. Use Shift-Enter to insert a new line in a form field (where allowed).

1. NAMES and IDENTIFICATION

a) Preferred name of language for code element denotation:
Panamanian Sign Language

b) Autonym (self-name) for this language:
Lengua de Señas Panameñas (LSP)

c) Common alternate names and spellings of language, and any established abbreviations:
Spanish Sign Language (This is often the name given to sign languages in countries where Spanish is the national language, however, it is not related to Spanish). LSP is the established abbreviation for this language.

d) Reason for preferred name:
It is the English translation of the Spanish name. The Spanish name should be listed, with the abbreviation LSP as the local name.

e) Name and approximate population of ethnic group or community who use this language:
Population not known. Not associated with one particular ethnic group. The deaf are usually between 0.1% and 0.5% of the total population, or 3,200 to 16,000 based on the latest population estimates for the whole country of 3.2 mil. (CIA World Factbook, 2004).

f) Preferred three letter identifier, if available: lsp

Your suggestion will be taken into account, but the Registration Authority will determine the identifier to be proposed. The identifiers is not intended to be an abbreviation for a name of the language, but to serve as a device to identify a given language uniquely. With thousands of languages, many sets of which have similar names, it is not possible to provide identifiers that resemble a language name in every case.

2. TEMPORAL DESCRIPTION and LOCATION

a) Is this a ☑ Living language
☐ Nearly extinct/secondary use only (includes languages in revival)
☐ Recently extinct language
[ ] Historical language
[ ] Ancient language
[ ] Artificially constructed language
[ ] Macrolanguage
(Select one. See explanations of these types at http://www.sil.org/iso639-3/types.asp)

b) Countries where used:
Panama

c) Region within each country: towns, districts, states or provinces where used. Include GPS coordinates of the approximate center of the language, if possible:
Through out, but concentrated in larger cities, like Panama city.

d) For an ancient or historical language, give approximate time frame; for a recently extinct language, give the approximate date of the last known user’s death

3. MODALITY AND LINGUISTIC AFFILIATION
a) This language is: ☒ Signed  ☐ Spoken  ☐ Attested only in writings

b) Language family, if classified; origin, if artificially constructed: Shares similarities with American Sign Language, but has definite differences. Possible connections with Sign Language in El Salvador (see http://www.elsalvador.com/noticias/2006/01/19/nacional/nac4.asp)

c) Closest language linguistically. For signed language, note influence from other signed or spoken languages:
American Sign Language with connections to Salvadoran sign language in El Salvador.

4. LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT AND USE
a) What written literature, inscriptions or recordings exist in this language? Are there newspapers, radio or television broadcasts, etc.?:
See references

b) Is this language officially recognized by any level of government? Is it used in any levels of formal education as a language of instruction (for other subjects)? Is it taught in schools?:
unknown

c) Comment on factors of ethnolinguistic identity and informal domains of use:
5. SOURCES OF INFORMATION
