1. NAMES and IDENTIFICATION

   a) Preferred name of language for code element denotation:
      Dawro

   b) Autonym (self-name) for this language:
      Unknown

   c) Common alternate names and spellings of language, and any established abbreviations:
      Dauro, Kullo, Cullo, Ometay

   d) Reason for preferred name:
      The name "Dawro" is established in the literature about this language and is a well-known common name for the language, ethnic group and administrative area involved.

   e) Name and approximate population of ethnic group or community who use this language (complete individual language currently in use):
      Dawro; population ~362,215

   f) Preferred three letter identifier, if available: dwr

Your suggestion will be taken into account, but the Registration Authority will determine the identifier to be proposed. The identifiers is not intended to be an abbreviation for a name of the language, but to serve as a device to identify a given language uniquely. With thousands of languages, many sets of which have similar names, it is not possible to provide identifiers that resemble a language name in every case.

2. TEMPORAL DESCRIPTION and LOCATION

   a) Is this a ☑ Living language
      ☐ Nearly extinct/secondary use only (includes languages in revival)
      ☐ Recently extinct language
      ☐ Historical language
      ☐ Ancient language
      ☐ Artificially constructed language
      ☐ Macrolanguage

Request for New Language Code Element in ISO 639-3, page 1
For individual languages, also complete:

b) Countries where used:
   Ethiopia

c) Region within each country: towns, districts, states or provinces where used. Include GPS coordinates of the approximate center of the language, if possible:
   Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples Region (SNNPR), Dawro Zone. GPS: 7°N, 37°E.

d) For an ancient or historical language, give approximate time frame; for a recently extinct language, give the approximate date of the last known user’s death
   NA

3. MODALITY AND LINGUISTIC AFFILIATION

a) This language is: □ Signed  ☒ Spoken  □ Attested only in writings

b) Language family, if classified; origin, if artificially constructed:
   Afro-Asiatic, Omotic, North, Gonga-Gimojan, Gimojan, Ometo-Gimira, Ometo, Central

c) Closest language linguistically. For a Macrolanguage, list the individual languages (adopted and/or proposed) to be included in its group. For signed language, note influence from other signed or spoken languages:
   Gofa

4. LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT AND USE

a) What written literature, inscriptions or recordings exist in this language? Are there newspapers, radio or television broadcasts, etc.?:
   There is an ongoing Dawro Bible translation project. To the best of our knowledge no radio, TV or newspapers are available in the language.

b) Is this language officially recognized by any level of government? Is it used in any levels of formal education as a language of instruction (for other subjects)? Is it taught in schools?:
   Seven years ago, Dawro was already considered to be separate from Gamo and Gofa. At that time, plans were made to begin a language development project in the Dawro language. In 2001, according to the Education Bureau of the Southern Nations, Nationalities and Peoples Regional State (SNNPR), the Dawro Zone was developing its own education materials.

c) Comment on factors of ethnolinguistic identity and informal domains of use:
   The Dawro have an ethnolinguistic identity distinct from the Gamo and the Gofa.
