1. NAMES and IDENTIFICATION
   a) Preferred name of language for code element denotation:
      Andaandi
      Dongolawi
   b) Autonym (self-name) for this language:
      Andaandi [ândàandi]
   c) Common alternate names and spellings of language, and any established abbreviations:
      Dongolawi Nubian -DN/ Dongolese
   d) Reason for preferred name:
      - Andaandi is the self name used by all the speakers
      - Dongolawi (from Arabic language) is the name used in most of the published literature by western scholars and still in use
   e) Name and approximate population of ethnic group or community who use this language (complete individual language currently in use):
      Danaagla / Dongola Nubians.
      180000 (1996)
   f) Preferred three letter identifier, if available: dan
Your suggestion will be taken into account, but the Registration Authority will determine the identifier to be proposed. The identifiers is not intended to be an abbreviation for a name of the language, but to serve as a device to identify a given language uniquely. With thousands of languages, many sets of which have similar names, it is not possible to provide identifiers that resemble a language name in every case.
