1. NAMES and IDENTIFICATION
   a) Preferred name of language for code element denotation:
      Miriwoong Sign Language
   b) Autonym (self-name) for this language:
   c) Common alternate names and spellings of language, and any established abbreviations:
      Fingertalk
   d) Reason for preferred name:
      Traditional owners of the Miriwoong language group have chosen the name
   e) Name and approximate population of ethnic group or community who use this language (complete individual language currently in use):
      Rough estimate: a few hundred Miriwoong people. However it is not clear yet how many people used this sign language.
   f) Preferred three letter identifier, if available: MwS

Your suggestion will be taken into account, but the Registration Authority will determine the identifier to be proposed. The identifiers is not intended to be an abbreviation for a name of the language, but to serve as a device to identify a given language uniquely. With thousands of languages, many sets of which have similar names, it is not possible to provide identifiers that resemble a language name in every case.

2. TEMPORAL DESCRIPTION and LOCATION
   a) Is this a ☒ Living language
      ☐ Nearly extinct/secondary use only (includes languages in revival)
      ☐ Recently extinct language
      ☐ Historical language
      ☐ Ancient language
      ☐ Artificially constructed language

Request for New Language Code Element in ISO 639-3, page 1

   Kununurra, Western Australia

   15°46'24.1"S

   128°44'21.1"E

d) For an ancient or historical language, give approximate time frame; for a recently extinct language, give the approximate date of the last known user’s death

3. MODALITY AND LINGUISTIC AFFILIATION

a) This language is: ☑ Signed ☐ Spoken ☐ Attested only in writings

b) Language family, if classified; origin, if artificially constructed:

c) Closest language linguistically. For a Macrolanguage, list the individual languages (adopted and/or proposed) to be included in its group. For signed language, note influence from other signed or spoken languages:
   spoken Miriwoong

4. LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT AND USE

a) What written literature, inscriptions or recordings exist in this language? Are there newspapers, radio or television broadcasts, etc.?:
   Video recordings from the current project with the Mirima Dawang Woorlab-gerring Language and Culture Centre
b) Is this language officially recognized by any level of government? Is it used in any levels of formal education as a language of instruction (for other subjects)? Is it taught in schools?:
No, it is not yet officially recognized and it is not taught at school.

c) Comment on factors of ethnolinguistic identity and informal domains of use:
It is an alternate sign language that the Miriwoong people use in various contexts. It is mainly used by the hearing population. There are three deaf people identified by the Aboriginal language workers of the Mirima Dawang Woorlab-gerring Language and Culture Centre
