1. NAMES and IDENTIFICATION
   a) Preferred name of language for code element denotation:
      Iranun
   b) Autonym (self-name) for this language:
      Iranun
   c) Common alternate names and spellings of language, and any established abbreviations:
      Illanun
   d) Reason for preferred name:
      This is the name that they call themselves and request that they be known as
   e) Name and approximate population of ethnic group or community who use this language (complete individual language currently in use): 30,000
   f) Preferred three letter identifier, if available: irn

Your suggestion will be taken into account, but the Registration Authority will determine the identifier to be proposed. The identifiers is not intended to be an abbreviation for a name of the language, but to serve as a device to identify a given language uniquely. With thousands of languages, many sets of which have similar names, it is not possible to provide identifiers that resemble a language name in every case.

2. TEMPORAL DESCRIPTION and LOCATION
   a) Is this a ☒ Living language
      ☐ Nearly extinct/secondary use only (includes languages in revival)
      ☐ Recently extinct language
      ☐ Historical language
      ☐ Ancient language
      ☐ Artificially constructed language
      ☐ Macrolanguage
(Select one. See explanations of these types at http://www.sil.org/iso639-2D3/types.asp)

For individual languages, also complete:

b) Countries where used:
   Malaysia

c) Region within each country: towns, districts, states or provinces where used. Include GPS coordinates of the approximate center of the language, if possible:
   the state of Sabah. The coastal regions of the Kota Belud District are where the majority of speakers reside. There are also other villages in Kudat District and near the town of Tungku.

d) For an ancient or historical language, give approximate time frame; for a recently extinct language, give the approximate date of the last known user’s death

3. MODALITY AND LINGUISTIC AFFILIATION

   a) This language is: ☐ Signed ☒ Spoken ☐ Attested only in writings

   b) Language family, if classified; origin, if artificially constructed:
      Danao language family of Mindanao

   c) Closest language linguistically. For a Macrolanguage, list the individual languages (adopted and/or proposed) to be included in its group. For signed language, note influence from other signed or spoken languages:
      Most research points to Maranao of Mindanao
