1. NAMES and IDENTIFICATION
   a) Preferred name of language for code element denotation:
      Moriori
   b) Autonym (self-name) for this language:
      Te Rē Mōriori
   c) Common alternate names and spellings of language, and any established abbreviations:
      Mōriori, Mouriuri, Maioriori, Maoriori, Mooriori
   d) Reason for preferred name:
      Moriori is the most common English spelling of the language name.
   e) Name and approximate population of ethnic group or community who use this language (complete individual language currently in use):
      The Moriori people of the Chatham Islands, New Zealand. The population is approximately 700 people, as of the 2013 Census.
   f) Preferred three letter identifier, if available: mri

Your suggestion will be taken into account, but the Registration Authority will determine the identifier to be proposed. The identifiers is not intended to be an abbreviation for a name of the language, but to serve as a device to identify a given language uniquely. With thousands of languages, many sets of which have similar names, it is not possible to provide identifiers that resemble a language name in every case.

2. TEMPORAL DESCRIPTION and LOCATION
   a) Is this a ☐ Living language
      ☒ Nearly extinct/secondary use only (includes languages in revival)
