Your suggestion will be taken into account, but the Registration Authority will determine the identifier to be proposed. The identifiers is not intended to be an abbreviation for a name of the language, but to serve as a device to identify a given language uniquely. With thousands of languages, many sets of which have similar names, it is not possible to provide identifiers that resemble a language name in every case.

2. TEMPORAL DESCRIPTION and LOCATION

   a) Is this a ☒ Living language
      ☐ Nearly extinct/secondary use only (includes languages in revival)
      ☐ Recently extinct language
      ☐ Historical language
      ☐ Ancient language ☐ Artificially constructed language

   b) Language family, if classified; origin, if artificially constructed:
      Twi

   c) Closest language linguistically. For a Macrolanguage, list the individual languages (adopted and/or proposed) to be included in its group. For signed language, note influence from other signed or spoken languages:
      Twi, Akan

4. LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT AND USE

   a) What written literature, inscriptions or recordings exist in this language? Are there newspapers, radio or television broadcasts, etc.?:
      Yes

   b) Is this language officially recognized by any level of government? Is it used in any levels of formal education as a language of instruction (for other subjects)? Is it taught in schools?:
      Yes

   c) Comment on factors of ethnolinguistic identity and informal domains of use:
      Publication databases and publishing standards, such as ONIX, reference the ISO language identifiers. Forcing Akuapem Twi and Asante Twi books into the same “twi” code discourages the distinction between the two dialects. This further complicates local language instruction and library systems that must distinguish between the two.
