1. NAMES and IDENTIFICATION
   a) Preferred name of language for code element denotation:
      Bajjika

   b) Autonym (self-name) for this language:

   c) Common alternate names and spellings of language, and any established abbreviations:
      Vajjika

   d) Reason for preferred name:

   e) Name and approximate population of ethnic group or community who use this language (complete individual language currently in use):

   f) Preferred three letter identifier, if available:

Your suggestion will be taken into account, but the Registration Authority will determine the identifier to be proposed. The identifiers is not intended to be an abbreviation for a name of the language, but to serve as a device to identify a given language uniquely. With thousands of languages, many sets of which have similar names, it is not possible to provide identifiers that resemble a language name in every case.

2. TEMPORAL DESCRIPTION and LOCATION
   a) Is this a [ ] Living language
      [x] Nearly extinct/secondary use only (includes languages in revival)
      [ ] Recently extinct language
      [ ] Historical language
      [ ] Ancient language
      [ ] Artificially constructed language
      [ ] Macrolanguage
(Select one. See explanations of these types at http://www.sil.org/iso639%2D3/types.asp)

For individual languages, also complete:

b) Countries where used:
   India and Nepal

c) Region within each country: towns, districts, states or provinces where used. Include GPS coordinates of the approximate center of the language, if possible:
   Bihar [Vaishali, Muzaffarpur, Shivahar, Sitamarhi and Samastipur Districts and the Dhaka Block of Purba Champaran District and the Singhwara Block of Dharbhanga District. In Nepal, it is spoken in Sarlahi and Routahat Districts.

d) For an ancient or historical language, give approximate time frame; for a recently extinct language, give the approximate date of the last known user’s death

3. MODALITY AND LINGUISTIC AFFILIATION

a) This language is: □ Signed   ☑ Spoken   □ Attested only in writings

b) Language family, if classified; origin, if artificially constructed:
   Language family research is not yet done, but so far it is considered as a dialect of Maithili, and Maithili belongs to Indo-Aryan language family.

c) Closest language linguistically. For a Macrolanguage, list the individual languages (adopted and/or proposed) to be included in its group. For signed language, note influence from other signed or spoken languages:
   Maithili [mai]

4. LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT AND USE

a) What written literature, inscriptions or recordings exist in this language? Are there newspapers, radio or television broadcasts, etc.?:
   Radio programs, Television programs, other literatures are available in Bajjika language.

b) Is this language officially recognized by any level of government? Is it used in any levels of formal education as a language of instruction (for other subjects)? Is it taught in schools?:
   Not officially used as medium of instruction in the schools and not recognized by the government of India.

c) Comment on factors of ethnolinguistic identity and informal domains of use:
   This language is used well by the community, and the children in that area first learn to speak this language. They use it for all the major domains such as home, family, village and with friends. They use Hindi for education and for interacting with others.
